Fabric matters - there is a book on the reception desk for members of the congregation to report any fabric issues requiring attention eg things that have stopped working or have broken. Please make a note in the book giving brief details. The book will be checked regularly and the issues passed on to the most appropriate person to deal with them. Fabric issues can also be reported by email to the church office.

Noticesheet - a copy of the noticesheet is available each week on the church website under the 'Sunday' tab. If you would like to receive an email copy of the noticesheet each week please contact the church office office@thesteepchurch.org.uk

Congratulations to Alan & Emily McKay on the safe arrival of Lewis Alexander McKay on Friday 24 May. Mum and baby at home and doing well.

URGENT - WOOL AND DOVES

For the Steeple's displays during the Scottish Refugee Festival we need a good supply of balls of wool and origami white doves. Any donations of these would be hugely welcomed by Katy, Alistair & John Clark. (If you need paper folding instructions please speak to Alistair!) Many thanks.

Save the date!

Connections Cafe is having a Middle East BBQ at Crombie Country Park on Saturday 13 July from 12-4 pm. Good food! Good fun! Good games for the whole family! Further information will follow, however we are working on the assumption that the cost will be £5 per person for everyone older than three. Please let John Clark know if you are thinking about coming and also say if you require transport, for which there may be an additional charge.

COMING OVER THE HORIZON

A Steeple People / Blend Coffee Lounge Alpha Course is coming our way in the autumn. You'll be hearing about it over the summer. The idea of flagging Alpha up so early is to give you plenty time get your cogs turning and you hearts beating faster at the prospect of us giving guests the chance to taste and see for themselves how good Jesus' love is. Jim Robertson, Alpha Course Leader.

An evening with John Blanchard - Why believe the Bible?

Tuesday 11 June at 7.30pm at Broughty Ferry Presbyterian Church, The Brook, 343 Brook Street, Broughty Ferry DD5 2DS. Further information call 01382 351812. All welcome.

Coming up ...

You are invited to the Thy Kingdom Come Global Prayer Initiative 2019.

Thy Kingdom Come started on Ascension Day 30 May and runs to Pentecost Sunday 9 June.
